Vocabulary Word of The Day

Word: panegyric

Pronunciation: pan-i-JIR-ik, -JY-rik

Meaning: noun: A formal or elaborate oration in praise of someone or something; eulogy.

Etymology: From Latin panegyricus, from Greek panegyrikos (of or for an assembly), from paneguris (public assembly), from pan- (all) + aguris (assembly, marketplace). Ultimately from the Indo-European root ger- (to gather) that is also the source of gregarious, aggregate, congregation, egregious, and segregate.
